

Issue Specific Summary

INTRODUCTION

This summary must be read as an introduction to the Prospectus and the Final Terms to which this is annexed. Any decision to invest in the Certificates should be based on a consideration of the Prospectus as a whole, including any documents incorporated by reference and the Final Terms. An investor in the Certificates could lose all or part of the invested capital. Where a claim relating to information contained in the Prospectus and the Final Terms is brought before a court, the plaintiff may, under the national legislation of Member States of the European Economic Area where the claim is brought, be required to bear the costs of translating the Prospectus and the Final Terms before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches only to those persons who have tabled the summary, including any translation thereof, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of this Prospectus or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of this Prospectus, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Certificates.
